

Politics and Policy Team Assessment Chart

Questions specific to the Policy Team:

- 5.(a) In the 1940s what are the Government guidelines (regulations) and laws that form the basis for guiding action? When were the laws passed on creating Mosquito Control Commissions? (b) What were the form those commissions took (research based? political?--or did it vary from one county to another?). (c) What is government policy and rules about mosquito control on what techniques could be used to control mosquitoes?

	Beginning (1)	Developing (2)	Accomplished (3)	Exemplary (4)
Guiding Question #5a In the 1940s what are the Government guidelines and laws?	Describe or summarize the laws and regulations that then governed mosquito control.	description is supported with specific references.	description addresses specific factors in New Jersey related to mosquitoes.	Description and the information in the response is accurate.
Guiding Question #5b What were the form those commissions took?	Describe the form of the commission.	Prior description and the response is supported with specific references and examples.	Prior description includes a discussion of an example of a New Jersey County's commission.	Prior description, the information in the response is accurate and the projection of the effect on the environment is data-based.
Guiding Question #5c What was policy on what techniques could be used to control mosquitoes?	Describe the types of techniques used during the 1940s.	description is supported with specific references and case studies	description includes a discussion of techniques specific to New Jersey/ County with multiple references.	description, the information is accurate.