

General Question Assessment Chart

General Questions To answer	Beginning (1)	Developing (2)	Accomplished (3)	Exemplary (4)
Guiding Question #1 What is the nature of the problem of Malaria in 1944-1945 in New Jersey?	The response addresses the definition of the malaria problem in the mid-1940s.	Prior description and the definition is referenced to sources.	Prior description and the definition is created from multiple sources.	Prior description and the definition contains information specifically relevant to addressing the outbreak.
Guiding Question #1b What are the possible sources of exposure to mosquitoes and how do the mosquitoes spread the disease?	The response addresses where the mosquitoes breed and describe how they spread disease.	Prior description and the historic are cited and referenced.	Prior description and likely historic problems with mosquitoes in New Jersey and/or local community are cited.	Prior description and historic knowledge of mosquitoes as vectors for disease are supported with evidence and data.
Guiding Question #1c What other diseases do mosquitoes carry?	Define what diseases were known to have been carried by mosquitoes.	Description are cited and referenced.	Prior description and potential current disease in New Jersey are cited.	Prior description and the virus is uses multiple sources.